PREPARATIONS FOR WAR:

NECESSARY PROCEDURES TO PUT IN EFFECTARY ORG.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. a. Memorandum contains a clear picture about the methods of the methods of the APA to interfere with inner politics of foreign countries with the view to produce new governments favorable to Germany. The Rumanian governments formed by OASA and Istor Marshal ANTONESCU are clearly a project of Nazi interference for many years. (Incl. 1). The same applies to the government of Quilling with the distinction that it was only set up after German occupation (Incl. 1).

b. Commercial transactions used as cover for financing subversive organizations favorable to Nazi Germany (p. 3, 4, 5).

c. Promotion of supporting fifth-columnists like Quilling in Norway (Incl. 1), GOA, and SUZA in Rumania (Incl. 2).

d. Propaganda was used under various covers for instance in Scandinavia through the Nordische Gesellschaft in Luckeck (p. 1).
2. Clear admission of planning the invasion of Norway years before it took place. The heading of the official report as regarding this phase of the activity of AFA reads as follows:

"The political preparation of the military occupation of Norway through the war years of 1939 - 40". It therefore contains admission of political preparations for such an invasion long before the actual invasion took place (Incl. 1).

3. Report mentions planning for war by redirecting the whole German economy with the purpose of obtaining raw materials from European countries, especially the Balkan countries (which were considered to be under German sphere of interest) in preference to hitherto used sources of supply from overseas. The report specifically states that this planning was done for military strategic (Wehrtechnischen) reasons (p. 9).

DESCRIPTION OF ATTACHED DOCUMENT (Under following headings).

Title and Nature: Inter-Office Report to Rosenberg re treatment of Ukrainian slave labor.

Date: 7 October 42 Original (x) Copy (') Language: German

LOCATION OF ORIGINAL (also WITNESS if applicable) as of 14 Au, 1945:

OCC, Paris

SOURCE OF ORIGINAL: Rosenberg Files

PERSONS INVOLVED: ROSENBERG, Alfred; WEHRMACHT: OKW; ARMY: ORH

1. FORCED LABOR; 2. DEPORTATION; 3. ATROCITIES;

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. The report contains an accusation of the mistreatment of slave laborers and the methods applied in conscription.
2. The report admits the failure of voluntary enlistment and the necessity of forced conscription. For the purpose of conscription the local native authorities are used to commit all kinds of atrocities with the support and in the name of the Wehrmacht (encl. p.1).
3. Individual atrocities are mentioned as follows: men and women are being taken at night out of their beds and locked into cellars until their deportation to Germany. No time is given to pack the necessities. A case is known where a woman arrived in her night shirt (encl. p.1 and 2). Women are beaten up until unable to walk (p.2). Slaves are beaten up in order to steal from them everything they possess (p.2). When in Germany, these slaves are insulted by Red Cross workers as "Russian pigs" and help refused. On their way to Germany they are locked into railway cars for many hours without possibility to relieve themselves or to get food or drinking water (encl. p.5 and 6). On their arrival in Germany female workers are being subjected forcibly to immoral treatment by German male workers in the bathrooms (p.7).
4. The report further complains about inhuman treatment of sick and incapacitated slaves sent back from Germany to their homeland. Thoroughly sick people are being herded into one railway car in numbers of 50 to 60 and remain for days without food or any kind of medical supervision (p.4). They are subjected to most cruel treatment and deaths are frequent (p.4). The report mentions cases of actual deaths occurred and the corpses dumped off the railway tracks without any provision for burial (p.5).
DESCRIPTION OF ATTACHED DOCUMENT (Under following headings).

Title and Nature: Order issued by Hitler, signed by Bormann, re P.L.s.

Date: 30 Sept. 1944; Original (x) Copy ( ); Language: German

LOCATION OF ORIGINAL (also MIA if applicable) as of 14 August 1945:

CCC, Paris.

SOURCE OF ORIGINAL: Rosenberg Files.

PERSONS IMPLICATED: HITLER, Adolph; HIMMLER, Heinrich; BORMANN, Martin;
MERKER, Gottlob; Rollinger, Alfred; STAHL, SS; WEFENSTICHT, OKW

REFERENCES TO INDEX ADDING (key to par. nos. of Summary below):

INTERNAL PROCESSING TO PUT IN LIVESTOCK FOR: None.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. The order issued by Hitler takes the jurisdiction over all P.L.s out of the hands of the OK and puts it into the hands of Himmler in his capacity as Chief of the Reserve Army (Befehlshaber des Ersatzheeres). In reality, Himmler assumes command in his capacity as Chief of the SS, which is proven by the fact that the order subordinates all commanding officers of P.L. camps to the respective SS commanders. Himmler's capacity as Chief of the Reserve Army is obviously only a piece of window-dressing.

Against W'Ar'lal personnel; Others (Russians)
2. GENEVA CONVENTION, Branch of
3. FILS, EXECUTION OF

NECESSARY PROCEDURES TO PUT IN EFFECT FOR FILED: HEYDRICH.
See 082-PS

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. The notorious Heydrich, also called "the hangman of Prague", who was later assassinated in the Protectorate, issues orders to the SD for liquidation of politically implicated persons among P.W.'s, also of all Jewish P.W.'s.

2. The regulations mention the placing of special SD Commandos in all Stalag's. These Commandos had the function of screening all P.W.'s, to separate the politically suspect as well as Jews and then to execute such people outside the camp itself. The execution was called "special treatment" (Sonderbehandlung).

3. The regulations state that the AGI has agreed to deliver any P.W. to the SD Commando on demand.

2. Rosenberg admits active intervention in Rumanian internal affairs by financing "out of his own pocket" to the sum of R. 21,000 the conference of a new party with revolutionary tendencies. Rosenberg boasts that without his intervention the congress, with its declared purpose to fight the king Titurelou, would not have taken

SUMMARY OF KEY POINTS (with page references);

1. Rosenberg’s letter to Keitel as Chief of the OHL contains the most complete condemnation of atrocities committed against Russian Pows, so far as hand.
2. It contains an admission of almost every major crime against humanity and the rules of warfare.
3. The Oehrleicht is deeply implicated.
4. The letter finally admits the intention of annexing outright large portions of Russian territory.

INDEXING TO INDEX HEADINGS (key to Par. nos. of summary below):

1. ATROCITIES against civilians
2. DEPORTATION
3. FORCED LABOR

Summary of Relevant Pages (with page references):

1. The report contains over 24 pages, the most comprehensive factual representation of the treatment of the Eastern slave labor. It not only gives the historical background of the labor action but at the same time states the present regulations and also individual cases of atrocities and mistreatment.

2. Owing to the comprehensive nature of the document it is impossible to give the highlights in this analysis. The report is couched in what under the circumstances can be called impartial language and offers therefore, good material for the comprehensive study of the complete problem of Eastern slave labor.

1. CHURCH, "TELEGRAPH YFP"

1. The circular is one more attack on the Catholic Church by Springenschild.

2. Its practical proposals are:
   a) Declaration claiming the Pope to be in the hands of the enemy (after the occupation of Rome by the allies), and therefore unable to perform his international function as religious head of the Catholic Church.
   b) Establishment of a special "speaker of the church" to be selected from among the German Bishops. This latter proposal is apparently intended as an attempt to eliminate the Pope as a religious and political figure from Germany altogether.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. This is a report to Hitler about the collected art treasures and expositions in Paris in November 1940. It suggests also the evacuation of the loot by special train under air cover. The value of the looted objects is estimated at one half billion Reichmarks.

2. A list of priority for the possession of the art treasures is suggested.

3. Hitler has first priority, Goering second, Rosenberg third, and German museums fourth. The rest should be sold by auction for the benefit of French war widows. It is particularly pointed out that the suggested disposition openly admits that the treasures selected by Goering are for his private collection.

4. The third document is a draft for a Führer order confirming the disposition made by Goering (para 2).

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. Jewish mansions, homes, and apartments and warehouses were searched first for Jewish property. The French tried to hinder this activity. It was concluded successfully thru the help of the SD and foreign exchange control. (Page 1).

2. The most important items were found in 177 Jewish collections, most of it in the Rothschild collection (Page 1).

3. This activity was continued by a search of apartments which had been vacated by Jewish refugees. Great difficulties with the French police were encountered. (Page 2).

4. The collected objects were stored in Jeu de Paume and the Louvre, put at the disposal of the Einsatzstab by the commanding chief of Paris. (Page 2).

5. A number of shipments went to Germany between 17 September 1940 and 15 April 1943. 93 art objects were transported by special shipment to Hitler's house (Fuehrer House) in Munich, 594 paintings, sculptures and textiles for Goering (Page 4).

6. Four castles were rented to house the collections in Germany. (Page 4).

7. Nine thousand four hundred and fifty-five (9455) were inventoried by 1 April 1943. Of them, 5,285 articles were paintings, 297 sculptures, 1,372 valuable pieces of furniture, 307 textiles and 2,224 pieces of small art. (Page 4).

8. Only the most valuable items were inventoried. At least 10,000 more have to be screened and sorted. (Page 5).

9. 400 more crates are ready to be loaded in Paris. If more storage space will be needed in Germany the rent of the castle near Lienz is suggested. (Page 5).
10. The furniture drive of the Ministry for Eastern Territories also resulted in the discovery of many art treasures. (Page 6)

11. Works of modern French painters which are not considered art by the Germans, because of the decadent characters of the paintings are listed in a special list for future disposition. (Page 6).

12. On Goering's order a number of these decadent paintings were exchanged for 87 old Italian, Dutch and German masters on the Paris art market. (Page 6).

2. He questioned Hitler's order and requests clear legislation on such an encroachment of private property, which he declares is bordering on theft. (Page 1 and 2).
3. He denies that the property of Jews who fled was derelict. (Page 4).
4. The French authorities are compiling a list of seized property to be presented to the Armistice commission (Page 2).
5. Dr. Gerigk pointed out that Hitler had announced that annihilation of all Jews in case of war, and that Dr. Goebbels had advised in "The Reich" the extermination of Jews like bed bugs and lice. (Page 2).

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. Many German agencies, for instance Ambassador Abetz, looted art treasures and tried to ship them to Germany (Page 2).
2. Von Behr and Dr Turner, Chief MG Officer of Paris, got Abetz to return his loot prepared for shipment to Germany. These objects and the Rothschild collection were combined in an exhibition for Goering (Page 2).
3. Difficulties were anticipated as it was feared that art objects would be selected by Goering for himself in spite of Hitler's order that Rosenberg should have the right of disposition. (Page 3)
4. To prevent other agencies in France to confiscate art treasures as well, Goering confirmed the Einsatzstab's exclusive rights.
5. Goering also issued a priority list for the possession of looted art objects, namely: 1. Hitler, 2. Goering, 3. Rosenberg, 4. German Museums. (Page 4)
6. Goering requested a new exposition for 9 November 1940 and announced his intention to inspect the collected loot from time to time and to pick some for his private collections. (Page 5)
7. Goering agreed to leave the articles which he had selected for himself in the Louvre for a certain time provided that security of the collection worth millions, would permit it.

1. The directives up to this date did not have the desired success. (Page 1)
2. Cooperation between the officers in the party must be increased.
3. Liaison officers to Kreisleiters are ordered to be detached for this purpose.
4. Purpose of this cooperation: (Page 2)
   a. Increase of production by F.I.s.
   b. To remove possible difficulties as fast as possible.
   c. To regulate the commitment of F.I.s so that it conforms to the political, military and economic demand.
5. Considerations regarding treatment have to be based on highest possible increase of production for the defense of Germany.
6. A F. is a soldier and obliged to obey. Obedience can be forced. The F.I.s must realize that they face ruthless treatment, possibly with arms, if they goldbrick, resist passively or in a case of mutiny.
7. Food rations in accordance with production: deductions of rations are to be made from individual F.I.s in case of insufficient production. These deductions are to be added to the rations of particularly industrious F.I.s.
8. The supervision of F.I.s is frequently up to plant managers, respectively their executive personnel. These will be used as auxiliary guards. (Page 4)
9. Managers are entitled to propose disciplinary action to the military authorities who in turn have to inform the managers immediately about their decision.
10. The managers may demand punishment or transfer of negligent guards.
11. The guards are instructed to force the F.I.s to the fulfillment of their tasks and to use the most ruthless methods if necessary.
12. The guards are to be punished if they do not intervene against lazy F.I.s.
13. The correct attitude of the guards towards the F.I.s is not so much a question of military education than of political conviction. Therefore the guards and the auxiliary guards are to be indoctrinated with the Nazi Ideology continuously.

SUMMARY OR KEY POINTS (with page references):

1. Transmittal letter Rosenberg protests against the planned appointment of Von Hentig as ambassador in Afghanistan.
2. File memorandum:
   a. In the political war in Asia minor an insurmountable barrier regarding the objective existed for years between the APA and the German Foreign Office represented by Hentig.
   b. Ibn Saud's Arabia - the APA succeeded in establishing friendly relations to Ibn Saud against the opposition from Hentig. Against delivery of goods, mainly rifles, Ibn Saud assured Germany the following:
      (1) At least benevolent neutrality in case of a conflict with the British Empire - if not more
      (2) Intimate political cooperation and economic priority toward Germany in his country.
   c. Von Hentig opposed this plan so that it could not be executed. After a new intervention by Ibn Saud in 1939, Von Hentig agreed too late with the proposed plan.
   d. This was too late because from Saud's Arabi the Arab movements in Syria, Palestine and the Iraq, could have been supported.
   e. Hentig intended on his part to instigate revolts in the Iraq from Syria after the example of Iraq.
   f. The APA established good connections with Afghanistan against the opposition of the Foreign Office. Its chief supporter was Abdul Wadid Khan, minister for economy.
g. Hertig's plan was to overthrow the present Afghanistan government thru improvised revolts of individual tribes. He wanted Amanullah to take over the government. He did not even attempt to ascertain whether the present government was not willing to cooperate with Germany in the same manner as he expected from Amanullah.

h. At the present moment the minister for economy, Abdul Medjid Khan, is in Germany to work out a plan for political and economical cooperation, mainly directed against the British Empire.

i. Luckily the APA was able to stop an attempt of the Foreign Office to have Amanullah reinstalled on the throne of Afghanistan by overthrowing the present government.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. The project of recruiting Air Force helpers in the East has failed. Nickel is given the entire responsibility for this project. SS General Berger orders that any agreements not bearing the signature of Berger are invalid.
SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. In agreement with the Minister of the East, the leadership of the SS, the Air Force and the leadership of the German Youth, Russians in Lithuania between the ages of 15 and 20 are to be recruited on a voluntary basis for deployment in the Reich and other European areas. After eight months they are to be incorporated in the Waffen SS and the Police respectively.

2. The volunteers are denoted as SS helpers. They are broken down into units according to their nationalities, and are designated by foreign names corresponding to their nationality. The office directing these activities is headed by Nickel. The Hitler Youth also draws men into its three HJ-War-Einsatz-Kommandos in the East.

3. At first eleven induction centers for 300 men each are to be established. The Germans are always to use the foreign nationality denomination in handling the men. (Page 1)

4. The next section deals with propaganda principles. The careful distinction between the individual nationalities in the East will be maintained. In Lithuania the adherence to the Roman Catholic Church is to be carefully considered.
5. The basic theme of the propaganda is to be as follows:

a. The Youth is joining in their own interests to free their homes from the Bolshevik oppression, for the freedom of all European nations and the exclusion from Europe of all foreigners, especially Jews. (page 2)

b. Advantage is to be taken of the perennial problem between the old and the new generation, using the enthusiasm of the young, but being careful not to offend the elders. Those who join are given alluring promises regarding their future, such as careers as leaders in their native police, the Gendarmerie and the SS, receipt of land in their native village and later free education in fields of public life, economy, trade and craftsmanship. Their parents are guaranteed special protection. (page 3).

c. The uniform nature of the struggle of the entire European Youth is to be stressed.

6. In both Latvia and Estonia orders have been decreed regarding compulsory commitment of the Youth in the war effort. (page 3). The youth is called up on the basis of the obligatory war-emergency decree.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. Original director Lüer has presented a plan for the conscription of all Latvian and Estonian youths to be trained in the military camps of the Hitler Youth in Germany. The purpose of this project allegedly is to relieve the shortage of non-commissioned officers in the Latvian and Estonian Legion, which is to fortify the northern front of Germany (page 1).
2. The General and National Directors in Latvia and Estonia are to create the legal basis for this conscription. Both General Dankers and Dr. Mae favor the establishment of some military training camps in Latvia and Estonia to satisfy the reactionary elements in those countries, which are suspicious of a Germanization (page 2).
3. The details of the Conscription Plan are to be worked out by the native administration, which is in keeping with the general German policy of leaving minor technical details to native authorities.
4. The two or three military training camps in the occupied Baltic are to serve only as propaganda; the remaining camps will be in the Reich. Military induction in Latvia and Estonia will not be voluntary, but on the basis of legal compulsion, without regard for the location of the military camps. The camps in Latvia and Estonia will also be under German control.

2. Rosenberg charges that Koch tried to discredit him and his ministry, but at the same time seemed to endorse all his decrees with regard to churches, agriculture etc. (p. 2)

3. Rosenberg refers to his decrees dated 19/11/41 and 13/5/42 respectively. Quoting from his latter decree, Rosenberg goes on to say: "... The saying that Ukrainians are a colonial people which as such should be treated with the whip like the Negroes, has dribbled through to the lowest administra­tive offices ...." (P. 2)

4. Rosenberg then continues by pointing out his own version of how a people should be ruled in order to secure their maximum cooperation in the interests of the ruling nation. Severe measures which appear necessary from the point of view of the rulers should not be openly announced to the people, but they should be given the feeling that cooperation with the ruling nation is to their advantage. This feeling is to be promoted especially in war time. (P. 3)

5. In order to prevent a coalition of Russian might, Rosenberg severed consider­able parts from the Ukraine and divided them between the General Government and the Roumanians. (P. 3)

6. Koch's opinion was from the start, that the Ukrainians would best be ruled by the whip. (P. 4)
7. Rosenberg maintains, however, that it is the task of the German rulers to procure the greatest possible production for Volk and Wehrmacht and to keep the lines of communication to the front open. (P. 4)

8. He points out that the Ukrainian people as a whole have been willing to work and, in the hope of social betterment have endured large encroachments on their cattle stock and far-reaching confiscation of their grain by the Germans, and forced labor in Germany (P. 7).

9. The attitude of the population, such as quiet sabotage and running over to the guerilla bands is blamed directly on Koch. (P. 8)

10. In his memorandum, Koch pictured the Ukrainian population as inferior, lazy, and anxious to dodge responsibility (Pp. 8-9)

11. Rosenberg also maintains that Koch's circular contained passages which, if they should become known to the enemy would cause the greatest damage to German interests. Quoting from the last passage on Page 1 of his circular, Koch is said to have written that the Slavic peoples can never be expected to show gratitude, but will always interpret good treatment as weakness. (P. 13)

12. Rosenberg refers to a book written by Koch in 1934, entitled "Aufbau in Osten" (see Doc. 359 PS) in which he expounded a fantastic ideology about the "great Eastern union" and praised the Eastern races. Now he refers to them as inferiors. (P. 14)

13. The rest of the report deals with Koch's ideologies as opposed to Rosenberg's. Finally, in his bitter quarrel with Koch, Rosenberg tries to picture him as a pathological case whose entire personality is intolerable. The crux of the quarrel, however, appears to be, that Rosenberg saw himself slighted by Koch's repeated attempts to by-pass him, which culminated in the publication of a circular by Koch, wherein Rosenberg must have been severely criticized.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. This document is a short summary of current military questions written in letter from Gen. von Falkenstein to an unnamed General. It is marked Top Secret.
2. Falkenstein considers the question of an attack on Gibraltar as particularly "ticklish".
3. The beginning of the offensive in Libya will be examined in conjunction with Italy based on a forthcoming report of Gen. von Thoma. Field Marshal Keitel will submit the plan to Hitler on the strength of Thoma's report. Keitel will then meet Marshal Badoglio in the middle of November and decide the details of the operation.
4. Gibraltar must not be forgotten in the general scheme. A small intelligence team will be sent to Spain in cooperation with Admiral Canaris by special permission of Hitler.
5. The Fuehrer at present considers the occupation of the Atlantic islands with a view to prosecution of war against America at a later date. Essential conditions for an aggressive war against America are: a) No other operational commitment; b) Portuguese neutrality; c) support of France and Spain.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. A top secret directive to Wehrmacht and Navy signed by Keitel.
2. Its main points are:
   a) Japan must be induced to active operations in the Far East as soon as possible to tie up strong British forces over there and to direct the main war effort of the U.S. to the Pacific.
   b) Japan’s military power has to be strengthened by the disclosure of German war experiences and support of a military economic and technical nature has to be given.
   c) The common aim to beat England quickly and keep the U.S. out of the war must be stressed and the Japanese told that Germany has no other interests in the Far East.
   d) The seizure by the Japanese of territories rich in war materials and of Singapore is of Prime importance.
   e) The plan Barbarossa (war against Russia) is mentioned in the order as creating specially favorable political and military conditions for Japanese intervention in the Far East.

I. Letter Sauckel to Hitler 1 Dec 1942.
   1. From 1 April 1942 to 1 December 1942, 2,749,352 foreign labor forces were furnished.
   2. 340,000 foreign workers per month were furnished partly on a voluntary basis, partly by creating a compulsory labor draft.
   3. For geographical origin of these workers see p. 4 of the letter.

II. Letter Sauckel to Hitler 10 March 1943.
   1. During January to February 1943 220,000 foreign workers were imported.
   2. Sauckel complained that several military commanders had prohibited the compulsory labor draft in occupied Soviet territories for political reasons.
   3. Sauckel makes the statement that foreign workers are in every respect very well treated in Germany. He says never before have foreign workers been treated so decently anywhere in the world as they are now. Being treated in Germany during the hardest of all wars.

3. England and France declared war.
4. The first goal of the German plan is the victorious termination of the Polish War.
5. Hitler himself will decide about transfer of troops to the West.
6. The Navy will commence hostilities. U-Boats will confine their activities to "prizes" until orders to the contrary.
7. The entrances to the Baltic Sea will be mined without violation of neutral waters.
8. The planned measures in the North Sea will be taken.
9. Air attacks on British War Ships and transports will only be started when English aircraft attack similar targets first.
10. For air attacks on the British Isles and cargo boats await further orders.
11. Leave the first step in land warfare in the West to the enemy.
12. Start naval attacks against France, only when France opens hostilities.
13. Air attacks against France will only be started after similar French attacks on German territory. The air war should not be opened by Germany. It should be guided by the plan to conserve the Air Force for the decision in the West after a victory over Poland.
14. The conversion to war is ordered for the whole German economic system.

NECESSARY PROCESSING TO PUT IN EVIDENTIARY FORM; LEADS: None.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. This is the fourth of 10 copies of the Fuehrer order. It is signed by Hitler and initialled by Jodl.
2. It is the goal of my (Hitler) policy towards France to cooperate with that country in a way useful for the prosecution of the war against England.
3. France will first have the position of a "non combatant power" which will tolerate on her territory, particularly in Africa, German war measures, and will support these measures with her own forces.
4. It is the main mission of France to take defensive and offensive measures against England and de Gaulle in Africa. Full participation in the war against England may result.
5. For the time being all discussions will go thru Foreign Office Channels with the participation of the Wehrmacht.
6. The following are the steps to be taken in Spain and Portugal:
   a. Measures to accomplish an early entry of Spain in this war have been taken. The goal of the German invasion of the Iberian Pen. (Code name Felix) will be the expulsion of the British from the Eastern Mediterranean.
   b. Gibraltar has to be taken, and England prevented from acquiring other bases on the peninsula or Atlantic Islands.
   c. Intelligence teams consisting of officers in civilian clothing will prepare the attack on Gibraltar and occupation of airfields. For the cooperation with the Spaniards and the assistance in camouflage, they are under the supervision of the Chief of the Abwehr Abroad.

d. The troops earmarked for the invasion of Spain will be concentrated far from the French-Spanish border. They will not be informed. They will receive three weeks notice. Motorized units are to be used.

e. Units of the Air Force will attack the British Fleet in Gibraltar when alerted by observers in Algeciras. They will take off from France and land in Spain.

f. Shortly afterwards, the Air Force units ordered for the invasion of Spain will cross the French-Spanish border.

g. Next German troops will attack Gibraltar.

h. Troops earmarked for the invasion of Portugal, in case of English attempt to establish bases there, will follow the invasion Army for Gibraltar.

i. We will support Spain in closing the Strait of Gibraltar from Spanish Morocco.

j. The army of invasion must be strong enough to take the Rock without Spanish help, and to support Spain in the repulsion of English landings on the coast.

k. Troops for the possible invasion of Portugal must be motorized.

l. The types of Air Force units to be stationed in Spain are listed:

m. The Navy will support the operations with U-Boats.

n. Italian participation is not contemplated.

o. The occupation of the Atlantic islands will be studied, OKM and OKL are responsible.

7. Plans for the German support of Italy's attack on Egypt are listed. The Air Force will attack and block the Suez Canal.

8. OKH will make preparations to occupy Greece from Bulgaria if necessary.

9. Approximately 10 divisions will be necessary to prevent Turkish intervention.

10. To shorten the time necessary for the assembling of troops, the German mission in Rumania should be increased.

11. Political discussions to determine the attitude of Russia have begun. Without regard to the results all preparations against the East which have been ordered orally before, will be carried out.

12. As it may be possible to go back to the plan "Seeloewe" (Invasion of England) in spring 1941, all three branches of the Wehrmacht should improve on these plans.

13. The plans for Spain and the Atlantic islands are to be kept particularly secret.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. This is the fifth of 12 copies of Hitler's order on the occupation of Vichy France. The code word for this operation is Attila. The document is signed by Hitler and initialed by Jodl and Keitel.

2. The occupation of the unoccupied part of France and seizure of the fleet and airforce is to be prepared for the case that the separatist movement should become evident on the part of the French colonial empire now governed by Weygand.

3. The preparations have to be camouflaged.

4. General tactical instructions are given for the invasion.

5. The resistance of the French armed forces is not expected. Local resistance is to be crushed ruthlessly, particularly with dive bombers.

6. Intelligence on the fleet has to be gathered by the Abwehr in cooperation with the Armistice Commission.

7. The fleet can be seized, for instance, by blocking the harbors, landings, sabotage and U-boat and air attacks on fleeing ships.

8. OKM will report whether the privileges given to the French fleet in the armistice should be cancelled.

9. Utmost secrecy is to be maintained. The Italians must have no knowledge of the preparations and intentions.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. This is the fourth of nine copies of the original order on the case Barbarossa; it is signed by Hitler and initialled by Jodl, Keitel and Brauchitsch.
2. The German Armed Forces must be prepared to crush Russia in a short offensive even before the conquest of Britain.
3. The Army will use all its units except those necessary to safeguard the occupied areas against surprise.
4. The Air Force will support the offensive and prevent the enemy from damaging areas in eastern Germany. Air operations against England must continue.
5. Deployment against Russia will be ordered eight weeks in advance of the offensive. Other preparations have to be finished by 15 May 1941. Our intentions must not be recognized.
6. The Russian Armies in western Russia must be annihilated by armored forces and withdrawal prevented. Through fast pursuit a line must be reached too far for air attacks on German soil.
7. We can count on active support of Rumania and Finland. OKW will decide how to put them under German control.
8. It will be Rumania's mission to neutralize Russian forces there, and to help in the rear area.
9. Finland will cover the deployment of German troops in Norway and operate with them.
10. We can count on the use of Swedish railroads and roads from the beginning of the offensive.
11. Detailed missions for the different armies are given.
12. Some operations to the north depend on Sweden's willingness to permit the use of her railroads.

13. The early capture of Moscow is necessary for political and economic reasons.

14. Instructions for the use of the Air Force and Navy are given.

15. Instructions for utmost secrecy are given. All officers concerned must be given the impression that these are defensive measures for countermeasures against Russian attacks.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. This order is the fourth of five copies. It is signed by Keitel and supplements Hitler's orders on Barbarossa.
2. It is not intended to declare East Prussia and the General Government as a zone of operations.
3. However, the OKH is authorized to take all measures necessary for the mission and the security of the troops based on the unpublished Fuehrer Order of 19 and 21 October 1939.
4. The occupied Russian territory will be split up into states with their own government.
5. The zone of operations is to be limited in depth as far as possible.
6. The Reichsfuehrer SS (Himmler) received special missions in the zone of operations by order of Hitler. These missions for the preparation of the political administration are based on the fight between two antagonistic political systems, which has to be finished finally.
7. The newly occupied areas in the rear of the zone of operations will get a political administration. In accordance with nationalities and borders of army groups, it will be divided for the time being into the areas North (Balticum), Center (White Russia) and South (Ukraine). They will be governed by commissars.
8. For the military tasks in the rear areas, military commanders will be appointed. They will be the highest representatives of the Wehrmacht in their areas.

9. The mission of the military commanders will be to support the commissars in their political tasks, exploit the country and secure its economic assets for the German economy, utilize it for the supplying of troops, protect it from revolution, sabotage and parachutists, regular traffic and housing of troops, police and Pows.

10. Orders of the military commander have precedence over those of the commissar.

11. Economic administration is the responsibility of the Reichsmarshall (Goering), who transferred it to the chief of the economic armament office (Wi Rue Amt).

12. The police will be under the commissar.

13. The Russian-German border, later the frontier of the zone of operations, will be closed to all non-military traffic except for the police as ordered by Himmler. These restrictions apply also to the highest state and party officials.

14. Special arrangements with Rumania, Slovakia, Hungary and Finland will be made by the OKW thru the Foreign Office.

15. Police actions for the security of the troops are permitted independent of the above-mentioned arrangements.

16. Sweden can only be considered as a transit area for troops. However, the commander of troops passing through Sweden can and must secure protection against sabotage and attacks.

2. The British war economy has been hit hardest by U-boat and air warfare against shipping.

3. The results of air attacks on factories cannot be ascertained as easily.

4. The results on morale and the will to resist of the British nation is the least recognizable from the outside.

5. Sea warfare against enemy shipping will be increased within the next few months.

6. We cannot keep up the volume of our air attacks. Therefore, they have to be concentrated on similar targets as our sea warfare.

7. All efforts of sea and air warfare have to be concentrated on imports and on aircraft industries.

8. To accomplish this, it is necessary to destroy ports and ships, key points of the aircraft and anti-aircraft industry and ammunition plants.

9. The sinking of cargo boats is more important than that of warships.

10. No decisive results are expected from planned terror attacks on residential sections and coast fortifications.

11. Up to the time of the redeployment for Barbarossa air and naval warfare is to be stepped up to give the impression that an invasion of the British Isles would be made this year.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. The document is a letter signed by Warlimont and initialled by Keitel and Jodl transmitting two pages of changes on Fuehrer Order No. 32.

2. After the victorious termination of the war in the East, the Wehrmacht may have a number of strategic tasks in late fall of 1941 and winter 1941-1942.

3. The newly acquired eastern territories must be organized and exploited economically under the leadership of the Wehrmacht.

4. The necessary strength of the army can only be ascertained later, but about 60 divisions and one air force plus allied units should be sufficient.

5. The fight against Britain in the Mediterranean and Near East is planned with attacks from Libya thru Egypt, from Bulgaria thru Turkey and perhaps from Trans Caucasus thru Iran.

6. In North Africa Tobruk has to be eliminated.

7. The preparations for the attack require an increase of the speed of transportation, with the help of French North African Forts and new sea lands from Greece.

8. The Navy has to take care of the necessary shipping space by chartering of French and Neutral vessels.

9. In view of the expected British reinforcements in the Near and Middle East, a German drive from Bulgaria thru Turkey is to be considered.

Doc. No. 456-PS
10. It is therefore necessary to concentrate forces in Bulgaria strong enough if necessary to make Turkey amenable politically or to break her resistance with the force of arms.

11. After the defeat of Russia the attack of a motorized expeditionary force on Iraq from Trans Caucasus is to be prepared.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. This document is initialed by Keitel, Jodl, and Warmont.
2. Sonderstab F is a central agency for all military questions in the Arab World.
3. It is directly under the Chief of the OKW and receives its instructions from him.
4. The missions of the Sonderstab F are:
   a. Contact with anti-British forces in the Middle East, with a view of active support of future German operations.
   b. Gathering of intelligence on the countries of the Middle East.
   c. Directing of shipments of arms to the Middle East.
   d. Training of loaders and saboteurs for anti-British movements.
5. In addition to his own staff, the following are under the command of the General Felmy:
   a. Military exports and agents, included are the personnel of the Abwehr for the Middle East.
   b. A staff of instructors.
   c. One well equipped motorized battalion. (Sonderverband F)
   d. A small liaison staff in Syria. This staff will receive certain tasks from the Armistice Commission in order to camouflage its real mission. This staff should be as inconspicuous as possible. Its relationship to the German representative in Beirut (camouflage) should be that of military attaché to ambassador.

6. Branch offices to be established later.

6. The Sonderstab F will be in direct communication with the Military Attaches in Ankara and Teheran. He will use the organization of the attache in Ankara for special tasks, namely: Intelligence, and establishing of new contacts.

7. The following paragraph has been crossed out and the handwritten note added:

"Eliminated by wish of the Foreign Minister".

8. Ambassador Grobba will be attached to the Sonderstab F as Foreign Office representative. According to the agreement between the Chief of the OKW and the Foreign Minister, he will receive instructions from the latter; the Sonderstab F will be responsible for the practical coordination.

1. These are the original death books as found in Mauthausen. The seven books contain the names, birth places, birth dates, nationalities, professions, causes of death and the exact hour at which the inmates died.

2. A favorite cause of death is "general weakness of the heart and circulatory system". Another one is "shot while trying to escape". People seem to die regularly at 5-10 minutes intervals and sometimes a large number of people die at exactly the same hour.

3. On some days only Jews seem to die. On others it is Czechs or Poles.

4. On one page in book 493B, apoplexy and pneumonia are crossed out as causes of death and under remarks we read the following: Suicide by jumping into the quarry.

5. In other cases the words pneumonia or heart-failure are pasted over by signs reading "shot by order of the RSHA", or "shot by order of a court martial" etc.

1. There are five original death books found in Gusen, near Mauthausen.

2. The books contain the names, birth places, birth dates, nationalities, professions, causes of death and exact hour of death of the inmates.

3. The "causes" of death are often identical for whole pages. In book #4-3, for instance, the clerk just lists a certain "cause" at the top of each page and then proceeds to make ditto marks for the rest of the page.

Analyst: Schufer
Our opponents, especially the Commandos, used methods in violation of the Geneva Convention. Captured orders show that in many cases they are instructed to kill all FWs.

In an appendix to the Wehrmacht report of 7 Oct. 1942 it has been announced that they are to be killed ruthlessly by the German units.

Therefore I order all members of Commandos have to be killed either in battle, or while fleeing or when they attempt to surrender. Each individual case is to be reported to the OKW.

Any member of Commandos apprehended by other than Wehrmacht forces as agents, saboteurs, etc. are to be handed over to the SD at once. It is strictly forbidden to put them in military custody.

This order applies exclusively to members of Commandos.

Commanders and officers who fail to execute this order or do not instruct their men accordingly will be put before a court martial.

Roehm, Truehess, SS Obersturmbannfuehrer, Dr. Schaefer, Major Pradl, SS Ostubrannfuehr Rauff, Dr. Becker

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. The first document is a telegram from the SD Chief in Riga to the RSHA requesting additional gas truck, because transports of Jews for the "Special Treatment" were arriving weekly and the available three trucks are not sufficient.
2. The second letter is a reply from RSHA promising the delivery of the new truck.
3. The third document is a telegram from the SD Chief in Belgrade reporting the accomplishment of the "Special Mission" and the return of the gas truck.
4. The fourth document is a letter giving a detailed report on executions by gas.
   a. The trucks are too heavy to move in bad weather. They could be left at the place of execution and used standing. But the places of execution are 10-15 kilometers from highways, and if the persons to be executed would notice where they were taken, they would get restless and that should be avoided. The only way is to load them on the truck at the collecting point, and to drive them outside.
   b. The writer tried to camouflage the trucks by putting windows in the sides to make them resemble caravans. Even so they are well-known to the authorities and the civilian population as "Death Trucks".

Doc.No. 501-PS
c. It appears from the letter that the trucks had police registration numbers.

d. The writer ordered all men to keep away from the trucks during the gassing to prevent damage to their health by gas leaks.

e. Some terms use their own men to unload the trucks after the gassing. That may result in serious damage to health and soul. The men complained about headaches after every unloading. The leaders of these terms do not want to change the system out of fear that prisoners, if used, might use the opportunity to escape.

f. The gassing was conducted incorrectly. In order to finish operations in a hurry drivers used to press the throttle down completely; as a result the prisoners suffocate rather than die in their sleep. Writer made adjustments on the throttles and now prisoners fall asleep peacefully and die faster. Distorted faces and excrements have not been noticed since.

Summary of Relevant Points (with page references):

1. This document is signed by Wachsmann and initialed by Keitel.
2. Ambassador Ritter phoned the WfST and transmitted a draft to the reply to British protests. He doesn't consider the matter particularly urgent but would avoid undue delays.
3. The essence of this draft is that soldiers in uniform on legitimate war missions are being treated according to International law; however members of the enemy forces who commit sabotage behind the lines using concealed weapons and wearing civilian clothes will be ruthlessly exterminated.
4. Ritter will hand this draft to the Foreign Minister if it is approved by the OKW.
5. The WfST added the following remarks:
   a. The Foreign Office fears apparently to expose itself to attacks by being more elaborate in this matter, particularly by mentioning of the Norwegian Instance about which the British Government complains. These attacks would be quite uncomfortable if the matter developed further.
   b. The suggested reply follows closely the note of the Chief of the WfST.

Doc.No. 517-PS
c. Ritter's suggestion has the advantage to hold back material which could be used if the matter should reach greater proportions.

6. The document bears a number of handwritten notes by Keitel and Wilmont as follows:
   a. Wilmont writes that he notified Ritter on 20 May of Keitel's decision. Difficulties may arise from the omission of the word "in the fight" when mentioning the extermination. (See Par. 2)
   b. The words "in the fight" are inserted in Wilmont's handwriting, after the words "ruthlessly exterminated". (See Par. 2)
   c. Wilmont made the following notations in the margin next to the words "concealed weapons": "Ritter has a picture of the man with a shoulder holster".
   d. Keitel made a note to change the words "civilian clothes" to "camouflaged clothes" and also made the change in the text itself in his own handwriting. (See Par. 2)

7. It is pointed out that the German word for camouflage (Par. 6) also includes "disguise".

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references): in the WUST

1. These documents contain the development in the WUST of the Führer Order of 18 October 1942 (Document No. 1301-PS) on the killing of sabotage troops.

2. Draft "A", Paragraph 1. Addition to Armed Forces Communiqué of 7 October 1942 announcing that in the future, all sabotage troops of the British and their helpmates who behave like bandits (same expression was commonly used for Partisans) will be killed without quarter.

Paragraph 2. Definition of "unwarlike" conduct of sabotage troops; deviation from the basic rules of warfare according to the judgment of the troops required. Thus they put themselves beyond the pale of the law of warfare.

Paragraph 3. Instructions to kill such sabotage troops without quarter in combat or in flight.

Paragraph 4. If detained due to military necessity, they have to be turned over to the SD, never to PME.

Paragraph 5. Instructions for distribution and security.
3. Draft "B". This consists of the original of Draft "A", on which pencil corrections have been made. It is marked "First Draft" and initialled by Warlimont.

Paragraph 2 now requires a deviation from the basic rules of an "open and honest" warfare...; a severe standard is to be used in judging these cases.

Paragraph 4. Utmost secrecy on the detention of saboteurs is to be observed.

Paragraph 5. Distribution is to be liberalized.

4. Draft "C". This is a retyped draft with minor pencil additions and revisions. Most important is the change in Paragraph 4, which now allows the handing over of saboteurs to the SD only, if not captured by the Wehrmacht.

Pencilled note dated 17 October 1942, noon, states that Hitler rejected this draft because not definite enough for the troops. Document is headed "Second Draft" and "retype".

5. Draft "D". This is a retype of Draft "C" with extensive revisions in pencil. See Draft "E".

6. Draft "E". Paragraph 2 has been changed entirely and combined with Paragraph 3. It simply states that all participants in so-called "commando raids" are to be killed without quarter, even if in uniforms, etc. No reference to the laws of warfare is made. It also states that every such case must be reported for inclusion in the Comunique of the High Command. Additional penciled revisions in Paragraph 2 are of minor importance.

Paragraph 3. Substantially Paragraph 4 of earlier versions. The clause enforcing secrecy about captured sabotage troops has been dropped again.

Paragraph 4. Specifically exempt troops captured in normal assault operations, including airborne landings.

7. Draft "F". Practically unchanged Draft "E", including penciled revisions. It is headed "Third Draft" and penciled note states that the Fuehrer personally drew up the final form on the evening of the 17th.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. Par. 2 of an order of 26 June 44 (unknown) might give the impression that all paratroops have to be treated as sabotage troops (i.e., shot without quarter) but Par. 5 of the Hitler Order of 16 October 1942 expressly excepts paratroops in ordinary airborne landings from this treatment.

2. Writer therefore considers it indispensable to instruct troops not to apply Par. 2 of order of 26 June 1944 to ordinary paratroops.

3. Handwritten note states that Par. 2 is not applicable but that no new instructions to troops should be issued.

2. The Germans are wondering how the enemy received word of the Fuehrer Order.
3. It is considered useless to make an official counter-proclamation to Eisenhower's broadcast. However, the following line of counter-propaganda should be used: Germany proclaimed officially in 1940 that paratroopers who are committed in their special uniforms will, if captured, be treated as prisoners of war. However, sabotage troops who land behind the lines are considered as criminals and treated as such, e.g., liquidated in combat.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. This document refers to the Fuehrer Order of 18/10/42 regarding the shooting of commandos and paratroopers.
2. The Chief of the Prisoner of War Department is of the opinion that fliers captured in civilian clothes are not to be treated as prisoners of war.
3. Abwehr III (abroad) opposes this view stating that members of enemy forces who can identify themselves by means of an identification tag or pay book are prisoners of war whether captured in civilian clothes or not.
4. WR adds that there might be cases where paratroopers in uniform carry out their missions, put on civilian clothes afterwards and carry no arms. In that case they are not "Franco-Tireurs".
5. The position of Abwehr III (abroad) is based on the fact that many German fliers over England had to leave their planes without uniforms. The application of the Fuehrer Order to allied fliers in civilian clothes is feared to have repercussions on German fliers abroad.
6. The names of two allied fliers, Embury and Cornell, are mentioned by the Commander in Chief of the Luftwaffe in connection with a letter to the Field Court of the General of the Luftwaffe. This letter states that if the two paratroopers were in uniform they cannot be treated as Franco-Tireurs or spies even if they had the mission to carry out destructive deeds. The question as to how they should be treated if they jumped down in civilian clothes remains open. However, the fact that they were in uniform is interpreted as signifying that England would not treat paratroopers in civilian clothes as prisoners of war.
7. Gravenitz is of the opinion that questions of this sort should not be judged from point of view of international rights but only on the basis of military necessity.

3. This correction was ordered by the Chief of Sipo and SD.
4. Attached is a letter to WR which indicates that there is a difference of opinion between the SD and the OKW/WFST regarding the interpretation of Paragraph 4 of Hitler's Order of 18/10/42, which calls for handing over to the SD of such members of commando units who are not caught directly by the Wehrmacht. The SD consistently refuses to accept these people.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. This letter reports the capture of British commandos, theoretically to be treated according to the Fuehrer Order of 18/10/42.

2. In this case, however, the Britishers who were fighting with a Partisan band could not be recognized as commandos and were taken prisoner along with the Partisans.

3. According to the Fuehrer Order of 18/10/42, Paragraph 4, they have to be handed over to the SD. It is said that the Fuehrer Order leaves no alternative.

1. This is another letter referring to Hitler Order of 18/10/42, in connection with the capture of four "Anglo-Americans" commandos who were delivered to the SD.
2. The Chief of Sipo and SD protests this action on the grounds that commandos who are "directly apprehended" by the Wehrmacht have to be executed immediately, according to the Fuehrer Order.
3. The Chief of Sipo and SD inquired whether the four "Anglo-Americans" were delivered for "Gegenaktion Charkow" (probably a reprisal act) (see Doc. 548-PS), or for treatment as commandos. His inquiry was not answered.
4. The Chief of the Prisoner of War Department has been informed.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. This document refers to the Fuehrer Order of 18/10/42 in connection with the capture of eight men, allegedly commandos.
2. It is made out in two copies, only one copy being marked "Draft".
3. The Chief of Sipo and SD insists that the Wehrmacht handle these men.
4. The Wehrmacht protests on the basis of Article 4 of the Fuehrer Order of 18/10/42, which demands that the Wehrmacht hand over to the SD those commandos who were not killed in battle.
5. One of the men is Jowett, a British officer, who is said to be a recaptured former prisoner of war. His fate will depend upon whether he was armed or not when captured. (See Document 548-PS, last paragraph).
6. On the basis of documentary evidence, only four men were proven to be commandos; the remainder being doubtful cases.
7. OKW wants this question cleared up and wants to ascertain why the Chief of Sipo and SD demands that these eight men be turned over to the Wehrmacht.

1. This letter, again referring to the Fuehrer Order of 18/10/42, lists the following names: Davies, Pepper and Fost. These men have been delivered to the SD by mistake, a careful examination revealing them to be genuine POWs. After their release, they have again been seized by the SD for unknown reasons.

2. A man named "Philipp Hackett" has never been heard of by the Supreme Commander, Southwest/7-2.

3. Parker, Bank, Jowett and Gull were delivered to the SD because they allegedly carried sabotage material when captured. For justification, reference is again made to the Fuehrer Order of 18/10/42, particularly Paragraph 4, which is said to forbid the Wehrmacht's keeping such men as the above, and demanded their deliverance to the SD.

4. The men named above are the same as mentioned in document

1. Reference is made:
   a. to the Führer Order of 18 October 1942, specifying that all participants in commando raids and other sabotage missions be killed in combat without quarter, disregarding the wearing of uniforms. In special cases, i.e., if turned over to the Wehrmacht by civilian police, they should be handed over to the SD. (Document 1301-PS).
   b. to Rundstedt’s question whether the Führer Order should not be disregarded for the Normandy campaign (Document 551-FS).

2. This order is applicable in full force after the D-Day landings; excepted only are uniformed enemies in front of the Corps rear boundary. (Par. 2) Paragraph 2 repeats the gist of the Führer Order of 18 October 1942.

3. All troops committed outside the battle area are to be informed briefly and concisely of these directions. (Par. 3)

4. Paragraph 4 charges the Armed Forces Commander, West, to make daily numerical reports on saboteurs killed in this manner for publication in the official Wehrmacht communique. This applies also to operations of the Military Commander of France, outside the combat zone. From this publication, a deterring effect is expected as attained with the original Führer Order.

5. There are 3 copies of this order in this file, two of them dated 25 June. The first is a draft with extensive pencil revisions. The second is signed by Keitel, who also added the Italian Armed Forces Commander on the Distribution. Warlimont initials his copy and forwards it to Jodl, who adds an additional order for the Italian Armed Forces Commander that the order would apply there according to its import. ATROCITIES: Against Civilians

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):
1. The document contains all relevant regulations and articles governing the institution of the compulsory labor service in the eastern occupied territories.
2. It ordains that all persons capable of work, whether partly or fully are subject to this directive.
3. It makes quite clear that persons may be directed to places of work in areas outside the Reichskommissariates East.
4. The length of service is not stated, but the ordinance permits a limited period in certain cases.
5. In case of a contravention of this decree certain punishments are threatened (ref. to ordinance Reichsminister Occupied Eastern Territories 19.12.1941, para 4.)
6. Para. 9 of the document permits the regional labor commissioner to order the detention in a forced labor camp of persons who are considered guilty of contravening this order. This is only to be done in light cases and the stretch of detention is not to last longer than six weeks.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. Having received authority by the Führer Decree of 17 Sept. 1940, providing for the seizure of art objects belonging to Jews in occupied Western territories, the special staff for art began work at the beginning of October 1940, with the seizure of the Rothschild art collection in Paris. Seizure extended to other Jewish art objects in Paris, and then gradually over the whole French territory. During this process, 21,903 objects of art were taken from 203 locations. The whole was cataloged and inventoried (pages 1 & 2).

2. Since the beginning of 1943, art seizures included furniture confiscations by the Ministry for Eastern occupied territories (page 2).

3. Scientific inventory and photography of art material upon arrival in 6 Reich depots. The 21,903 art works inventoried up to 15 July 1944 included paintings, miniatures, tapestries, furniture, priceless sculptures and so forth. These figures are incomplete for seizures in the Western areas (pages 2 & 3).

Analyst Brown
4. The extraordinary artistic and material value of seizures cannot be expressed in figures; as nothing comparable had ever appeared in the open market. The lot included several hundred works of first quality, among them pieces by the greatest Dutch, Spanish, French and English masters. Period furniture of enormous value was also collected (pages 3 & 4).

5. Work in Eastern occupied territories was limited to scientific and photographic recordings of public collections and their safeguarding in cooperation with military and civil authorities. However, numerous Russian paintings, icons and furniture were accumulated. Degenerate Bolshevik art was taken for political study purposes (pages 4 & 5).

6. Detailed list of seizures in France follows (pages 5, 7, 8 & 9).

SUMMARY OF RELLEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. Further reports in matter of killing of insane: (a) Case Hertel. Hertel had been indicted for manslaughter, and later brought into an asylum in March 40. On the 22 May 40 a doctor of the institution certified that Hertel was not in shape to stand trial. On the pressure of the defense attorney the court finally investigated and was notified that Hertel had died on 8 May 1940. (b) Refers to Document 624 PS attached). This is a letter of transmittal from Public asylum to the Saxonian Ministry of the Interior forwarding two inquiries by Saxonian Public Prosecutors after former patients, with a request to reply to the senders. The asylum gives a medical history of the cases and states that both patients had been taken away by the Commonweal Sick Transportation Company (which evacuates the insane to the murder factories). The Public Prosecutor General states that the Ministry of the Interior forwarded the letter to him and requests instructions. (c) The Public Prosecutor Leipzig reports that it is an open secret there that the insane and weak-minded are generally exterminated. He added a transcription of 22 death notices from a local paper collected in September and October 40 evidently involving killings of insane (attached). In the last paragraph he reports another case.

2. Dr. Gurtner forwarded this letter to another personality (illegible) to be returned after perusal.

2. The letter describes the effect on the population and speculates on further consequences of the policy in question.
3. Paragraph 2 mentions the fact that the asylum in Grafeneck has its own register of deaths, though it is not a township, and apparently also its own crematorium. The stereotyped character of death certificates from there and from certain other asylums has aroused suspicions on the surrogate courts of Stuttgart.

Summary of Relevant Points (with page references):

1. The first paragraph contains a statement on the nature and scope of the measures for elimination of the insane. Subsequent paragraphs up to page 10 contain statements of facts and observations. The balance of the memorandum is dedicated to arguments.

2. In October 1939, the Ministry of the Interior sent out questionnaires directly to the asylums, requesting data on certain classes of inmates. It caused some astonishment but, upon inquiry, the Ministry explained it to be purely statistical. (Pages 1 and 2, including list of classes of insane to be reported.

3. Letter of 20 January 1940 by the Commissioner for National Defense, notified the asylums of the imminent shifting of numbers of patients in large shipments. Notification of the relatives was declared undesirable. This measure was at first executed in the regions of Pomerania, Brandenburg-Prussia, Saxony, Wurttemberg and Hamburg; since June, in most regions of Germany. Pages 2 and 3

4. In the second half of April, the institutions received the first orders naming patients to be transferred. It was evident that these names had been taken from the questionnaires of October 1939. Page 3.
5. In March, 1940, there appeared in Burtttenberg the report of the shipment of thirteen epileptics transferred to Grafeneck, of whom four died after only three weeks. The notification of the relatives arrived usually eight to fourteen days after the death, and had always the same wording. (Sudden deaths of various causes and immediate cremation on order of the Health Police.) Other similar notifications went out from Grafeneck to all parts of Germany, reporting the death of persons with previously unimpaired physical health. Mr. E., for instance, who was suffering only from mental depression, was transferred from Zedburg-Hau to Grafeneck on 7 March 1940 and died there on 10 April of a circulatory disease. The container with his ashes and the correspondence pertaining to his death carried the number 4-498. Pages 3 and 4.

7. Investigation of the number of deaths in Grafeneck shows that about eighteen died daily in this institution of one hundred beds. Page 4.

8. From Saxony, five institutions are mentioned, in three of which the incidence of deaths in early 1940 was three to ten times the normal figure. Page 4 and 5.

9. Visits to these Saxonian institutions have shown plainly that the cause of the accelerated death rate is a policy of deliberate starvation. Page 5.

10. The former workhouse, Waldheim, was converted into a State Asylum. From here, too, relatives, ignorant of the transfer of patients to this institution, are receiving notifications of deaths and cremations. Pages 5 and 6.

12. Observations on mercy killings in Brandenburg and Berlin provinces. The former workhouse, Brandenburg, has been converted into a municipal asylum. It has been made entirely inaccessible, for no obvious reason. In some cases the patients dying there are probably not even insane. The letters of condolence are stereotyped and objectionable. Pages 6 and 7.

13. All patients transferred from private institutions in the Brandenburg Province are apparently first transferred to the State Asylum, Brandenburg-Preussen, without previous consent of relatives or guardians. A report of a visit to this institution shows the revolting conditions. Apparently death takes place after transfer to the former workhouse. Page 7 to 8.

14. Cases involving Berlin-Tuch Asylum: one patient was transferred to Hartheim, near Lié, where he died and was cremated. There was also an increased death rate among the remaining patients. Report about the circumstances surrounding a shipment to Waldheim, Grafeneck, and Hartheim on 14 April 1940. Pages 8 and 9.

16. A resume of the uniform procedure followed in the different areas: forced transfer in mass shipments, mixing of patients, refusal of food; weakening, forced medication. (People are talking of lethal injections.) Then in almost every case, cremation and burning of the clothes delayed notifications by letter in stereotyped form. All this indicates a definite plan for the elimination of all insane and incapable of a social existence. Pages 9 and 10.

17. The writer is Director of the Hoffnungstal institutions in Lobetal, near Berlin, also the Vice-President of the Central Committee for the Interior Mission (Social Service Organization) of the German Protestant Church.

18. The document appears to have been filed by the Ministry of Justice as "Top Secret." It is classified as "Confidential" by the writer.

SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. Par. 1) discusses the steadily increasing importance of foreign workers for the manpower problem.
2. Par. 2) refers to the specifications of the treatment of foreign workers as contained in certain publications issued by Sauckel. The appeal to observe and enforce these directions is underlined. The final paragraph states that due to the observation of these directions the output and health of foreign workers may be considered satisfactory.
3. Par. 3) National Socialism demands on the one hand decent treatment, on the other hand strict supervision of foreign workers.
4. Par. 4) A quotation of Sauckel's speech on the same subject, warning that mistreated slaves are of less efficiency. Human beings are not simply machines; these foreign workers are needed for years to come and are difficult to replace.

SYNOPSIS OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. In view of the paramount necessity for victory in the war, the inherent powers of all nations of Europe must be mobilized. Therefore, all derogatory statements on Eastern nations, statements of plans for resettlement of those nations are to be eliminated and statements about their valuable contributions in the fight against Bolshevism and on the intended reconstruction in the East after the war must be emphasized.

2. This is a lithographed copy of Goebbels' order to the Ministry of Propaganda. A carbon copy of Thierack's letter dated 10 March 1943, requesting the circular, is attached. Also attached is the original of the secret letter of transmittal from the Ministry of Propaganda, dated 12 March 1943. It also contains notes of the Minister of Justice (Thierack) on circulation and the initials of different officials.
