SUMMARY OF RELEVANT POINTS (with page references):

1. The directive contains the names of a number of officials charged with certain duties; i.e., the detailed securing of Jewish property becoming available during the planned liquidation of the Brest-Litowsk Ghetto.
2. The writer of this document is the District Commissar of Brest-Litowsk, who signs this copy. The signature is illegible.
3. To what extent this campaign was planned can be gauged from the fact that separate persons were appointed for the securing of such items as gold and silver, hand-tools, fire-wood, furniture and underwear. Depots and storage space were arranged before hand, and trucks as well as local, that is Ukrainians personnel, alerted to take part in this campaign.
