1. AWARD FOR VOLUNTEER TYPISTS: In response to the previous urgent requests, several members of the Office of U. S. Chief of Counsel have volunteered for special night typing work. The full quota of two teams of ten persons each has not yet been met, although the urgency is still great. As an inducement for such volunteer assistance, it has been decided to award to each of these two volunteer teams one ticket for a day's attendance in the Court Room during the first week of the trials. Each team may determine among themselves the use to be made of the ticket. All qualified typists who are available to render such assistance, on the basis of three nights a week for each team during the next two weeks, are again urged to contact the Personnel Section, Administrative Division, Phones 61171 and 61172 today.

2. SUNDAY TRIPS: The trip to Rothenburg-Ob-Der-Tauber for this coming Sunday has been fully subscribed for. The time for departure from the Grand Hotel is 1300. There are still accommodations for 10 people on the Munich trip, which leaves from the Grand Hotel at 0930. Please sign up in Room 115 as soon as possible. Accommodations for eight persons desiring to go on a selected trip in the vicinity of Nurnberg are still available.

3. FOOTBALL GAME: The First Division will play the 71st Inf. Div. at Soldiers Field on Sunday - 1400. A bus will leave the Grand Hotel at 1345.

4. FOUND: The person who left several volumes of the R&A Study No. 2578 (Hessen and Hessen-Nassau, Germany, etc.) in Room 182, Transportation Desk, may secure them by calling at Room 180.

5. NOTICES & INFORMATION FOR BULLETIN: Persons desiring to insert notices of general interest in this Bulletin may submit them in typed form, signed and with the telephone number of the sender indicated. All such notices must be in at Room 178 prior to 1100 daily. No telephone messages or notes on slips of paper, unsigned will be given consideration.

6. STARS & STRIPES - LOST AND FOUND business is now taken care of in Room 115. You may also register here for the Sunday Trips.

7. ATTENTION: AMERICAN GIRLS: You are cordially invited to become a member of the "All American Club" sponsored by the Red Cross in Furth. Beginning Tuesday night, November 17, there will be a series of all-American dances given in Furth with transportation provided. The purpose of this club is to give the great number of American boys in this vicinity a chance to dance with American girls again, be they Red Cross girls, or civilian girls. If you are interested in joining this project, please contact Room 115. as soon as possible.
